Dobie Maxwell

Dobie Maxwell—aka ‘Mr. Lucky’ - is FUNNY! Funny how, like a clown? No he’s funny on stage as a nationally touring standup comedy headliner. He’s also funny on the radio, both as host of his own show and as a guest. Dobie has also appeared on national television on ‘The Late Show With Craig Ferguson’ on CBS TV and Byron Allen’s ‘Comics. TV’. He’s also appeared on way too many local and regional television programs to list.

FEATURING DENNIS MARTIN

10:30 PM TO 2:00 AM

“I hope you like jokes” may seem an absurd way for a comedian to begin a show but those are the words that comedian Dwight York uses to introduce himself to his audience each night. Then the joke-sliding begins and never ends until York says “goodnight” a couple hundred perfect one-liners later. In August of 2009 York appeared on the main-stage at the Legendary Buffalo Chip Campground for the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally. York will be returning again this summer where he will be headlining the Buffalo Chip Comedy Club with Dwight York and Friends. Dwight York inventive as he is suggestive, is what Steven Wright would be if Wright had Robert Schimmel’s blue streak, and that’s a compliment to all three master comics.
